Ensuring the equitable treatment of crime victims in Canada

About Us

Since 1993, the Canadian Resource Centre for Victims of Crime (CRCVC) has been a leader in advocacy for victims and survivors of serious crime in Canada. We are a federally incorporated not-for-profit agency located in Ottawa, Ontario and bilingual services are available. All services are free of charge and confidential.

We believe...

Victims of crime should be treated with courtesy, compassion and with respect for their dignity and privacy. We offer assistance and advocacy regardless of whether the perpetrator of the crime has been identified, apprehended, prosecuted or convicted. The CRCVC believes victims must be empowered to regain control of their lives.

Services

We assist victims and survivors by helping them:

- Obtain needed services and resources;
- Deal with post-trial agencies such as Correctional Services Canada, the Parole Board of Canada and/or financial benefits/compensation programs; and by
- Offering long-term emotional support.

Other services include:

- Advocating for victims' rights by presenting the interests and perspectives of victims of crime to government, at all levels; and
- Provision of resource materials to crime victims and service providers in Canada, including a monthly newsletter.
